

CIRCULAR TO SCHOOLS, COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES IN INDIA

United Nations has proclaimed 2019 as the International Year of the Periodic Table (IYPT 2019) as per A/RES/72/228 and 39C/ decision 60.

ICUN Programs: Prestigious Legacy

IARC | Centre for United Nations is at the forefront of driving United Nations initiatives in India. Since 2011, the coveted ICUN programs are conducted at India's best schools, colleges and universities including IITs and IIMs.

Introduction: IYPT 2019 India Program

This prestigious program captures through its 16 engaging chapters, the cutting edge technology & industry frontiers reasserting the interdisciplinary applications of the Periodic Table. Hence it is a must-do program for students & educators across disciplines, especially basic sciences, engineering and chemistry, to stay relevant and a step-head in your professional aspirations and academic assessments.

IYPT 2019 India Program: Special Short-term Course

Organized by: IARC Centre for United Nations

Meets criterion for: NAAC | NBA | NIRF | BCI | PD | API Index

Eligible for: Credit | Activity Points for students (as per university norms)

Available to: All Disciplines | Mode: Online | Fee: Rs. 499 | €15 (international)

Note: Certificates with official logos will be issued to participants & coordinators

Awards: Best performing participants, coordinators & colleges will be decorated

Syllabus Topics

1. Forests & Cultures
2. Making of the Elements: Big Bang, Stars and beyond
3. Industry Frontiers
4. Engineering Frontiers
5. Business Frontiers
6. The Ground Zero
7. Nanobiotechnology Frontiers
8. Tragedies of Periodic Table
9. Search for Extraterrestrial Life
10. Chemistry of Love
11. Philosopher's Stone
12. Gaming Climate Change
13. Environmental Laws and Governance
14. Heroes of the Periodic
15. Relativity & Quantum Mechanics
16. Synthetic Life

Become a Coordinator

Apply on Website: <http://un.iarc.res.in/program/iypt>

Email: iarc.unitednations@gmail.com | Call / Whatsapp on: 08454040464